

REBEKAH

Discussion Questions

Rebekah, in a direct answer to Abraham's servant's prayer, was guided by God to offer the servant water to drink and even to draw water for his camels. We can learn some lessons about God's guidance from the servant's prayer and Rebekah's response.

1. We can be glad marriages are not arranged by others today, yet in this case, why was it a good thing?
2. Describe in your own words what Abraham's servant prayed.
3. How did God answer?
4. Why do we need to be careful when we pray this type of prayer?
5. What were Rebekah's qualities?
6. Can you think of a time when you have prayed for specific guidance?
7. Did you get an answer?
8. Are you facing a decision in the near future that you need to ask God's guidance for?
9. Write a letter to God, asking Him for guidance in this situation. Read this letter/prayer in your daily quiet time. Note the answer God gives.

Memory verse: (PSALM 32:8 New Living Bible)

"The Lord says, I will guide you along the best pathway for your life. I will advise you and watch over you."

